Abstract

The publication summarizes the results of the activities for the Journal of Clinical Medicine of Kazakhstan in 2025. It was prepared on behalf of the editorial team of the Journal to express appreciation to all editorial and advisory board members, reviewers and authors who contributed to this journal throughout the year.

The year 2025 marked a significant milestone for our journal—the start of indexing in Scopus. This opens new opportunities to enhance the scientific level and international recognition of this journal, which has become an important platform for publishing clinical research results and medical advances in Kazakhstan and beyond.

On behalf of the editorial team of the Journal of Clinical Medicine of Kazakhstan, we would like to express our appreciation to all editorial and advisory board members, reviewers and authors who contributed to this journal in year 2025.

We wish all authors and the journal's team success in their work, new discoveries and achievements.
